Dear Member,

Congratulations for meeting all of the accredited graduate requirements for AAFAM® Board Certification. Our Board of Standards has voted to approve your board certification. Please begin using the acronyms and qualifications on your resume and websites at this time, and we recommend that you mount these handsome member documents and credentials proudly in your office or home.

As a new AAFAM® Certified Member, we hope you have the opportunity to use the AAFAM® quality marks and logos on your business cards, promotional materials, in your social networks, and or resume. Many officials and top managers around the world are seeking our certifications, and we are certain that the AAFAM® can help your career, salary potential, and image.

The AAFAM® will continue to serve our global members through our websites with exclusive member benefits, digital toolkits, newsletters, research and press opportunities, and listing on our international registry. Please be advised that we suggest that you complete the annual 15 hours of CE continuing education and maintain continued membership of good standing with our organization so we may continue to serve you. As a note, our global society holds registered trademarks and international copyrights to protect the AAFAM® certification, programs and distinctions.

To read about our ethics guidelines, continuing education requirements, copy & download logos, download books, review standards, join our online professional advisory council network, or to download handbooks please go here: <http://www.AAFAM.us/handbook.html>

Sincerely and Kindest Regards, G. Mentz, Esq.
