Dear I Nengah Laba

The article presents an interesting and well-designed study. However, you should provide more details data. And, the significance level and power analysis should be included.

Abstract could be rewritten accordingly.

Dear I Nengah Laba

The results of this study are significant and have important implications for future research. However, the authors should address the potential variables that may have influenced the results. Please, refer to paper template. It seems that the template is not thoroughly used.
